

MARIA BAMFORD

What 39-year-old comedian earned "Best of the Web" from Salon.com and the Harvard Crimson for her web series "The Maria Bamford Show?" What entertainer is one of Variety's "10 Comics to Watch" and was voted by Comedy Central viewers as one of their "Top 10 Favorite Comics?" What comic has appeared on both Garrison Keillor's "Prairie Home Companion" and in Dave Eggers' DVD magazine, "Wholphin?" Maria Bamford! That's who!

Maria started her performing arts career in Duluth, Minnesota at the age of 11 where she starred in the Chester Park Elementary production of "How the West Was REALLY Won!" A short 24 years of self-discovery and secretarial work later and look at her now! Maria is the first female comic to have two half-hour Comedy Central Presents specials. She starred in the Comedy Central series, "The Comedians of Comedy" and Netflix's "Comedians of Comedy: The Movie." She has made multiple late night appearances on "Late Night with Conan O'Brien," "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," "The Late Late Show with Craig Kilborn" and "Jimmy Kimmel Live," as well as not-so-late appearances on Premium Blend, "Tough Crowd with Colin Quinn" and "The World Comedy Tour: Melbourne 2003." Maria also appears regularly on Adult Swim's "Tim and Eric: Awesome Show" and an upcoming spinoff called "Check It Out" (starring John C. Reilly). Maria regularly performs comedic voiceovers for such cartoons as Fox's "Sit Down Shut Up!," Cartoon Network's "Adventure Time," Nickelodeon's "CatDog," Disney Channel's "Kick Buttowski," PBS's Emmy-winning series "Word Girl" and Nickelodeon's "Back at the Barnyard."

Maria's writing has been featured in The Onion, The Melbourne Age and LA Weekly. She is currently working on a book about depression and mental illness with funny experiences of her own and other comedians that will be published by Quack! Media. Her new CD, "Unwanted Thoughts Syndrome" was released by Comedy Central Records in April 2009.
