

Queen Aishah

Queen Aishah – Comedienne, actress, radio personality and philanthropist. To her plethora of mass media credits, this 3X Apollo TKO winner is best known for her on-air innovative characters, Ms. Chlyam-edium (the Uno Card Reader) and PHAT Peaches. Both of these characters had a significant place on the Big Phat Morning Show on in Baltimore, MD and as well as the Russ Parr Morning Show.

Queen's wit, love of life and laughter earned her a requested impromptu appearance on the Oprah Winfrey Show. She has since been featured in Verizon's television, radio and print campaign while sharing the stage with acclaimed comedians, Steve Harvey and Cedric the Entertainer. Queen has also performed with artists such as Yolanda Adams, Heather Headley, and Chuck Brown. She has even toured with R&B artists, Jaheim, K-CI and Jo Jo.

Her most recent endeavor includes The Vagina and Pocketbook Monologues as the mistress of ceremonies and cast member. This tour offered the opportunity to work with extraordinary trailblazers such as Star Jones, Sherri Shepherd, Phyllis Yvonne Stickley and Vanessa L. Williams. Queen Aishah's humanitarian activities include coordinating countless charity events throughout the country. Understanding the POWER OF THE SPOKEN WORD, Queen Aishah lives her life to empower others through the gift of laughter while displaying a very real example of how extra ordinary one's life can be when one's passion is tied to one's purpose.
