

MARSHAWN EVANS

SPEAKER / LECTURER

As a pioneering woman in the world of professional sports, Marshawn Evans is President of EDGE 3M Sports & Entertainment - a full-service brand management agency responsible for elevating the profile of elite entertainers and athletes in the NBA, NFL, WNBA, and Major League Baseball. She is Founder and Executive Producer of The Caring EDGE Awards held annually in Atlanta, GA recognizing the philanthropic contributions of professional athletes and entertainers.

Her successes in the classroom and the courtroom took her to the infamous boardroom as one of Donald Trump's handpicked cast members on NBC's hit show "THE APPRENTICE." Marshawn was the only person to lead Trump's all-women's team to a victory as the Project Manager for an upscale, yet in your face, Lamborghini advertising campaign.

A graduate of Georgetown Law, Marshawn practiced with one of Atlanta's most prestigious law firms, and has been featured by Glamour Magazine, USA Today, The Big Idea with Donny Deutsch, ABC, Fox News, and NBC's The Apprentice with Donald Trump.

Marshawn's first book Skirts in The Boardroom, A Woman's Guide for Success In Business and Life comes out in November with John Wiley, the number one business publisher in the world.
